A Million-Story Building

WASHINGTON-CENTERVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY HAS THE 22ND LARGEST COLLECTION IN OHIO! It's not surprising patrons find what they are looking for among the collection of 360,000+ physical items and countless more digital items. Whether it's a print book or digital audiobook, fiction or nonfiction, movies or music, the Library has something for every age and interest! And, we have a host of services to help you find that 'just right' item including:

Merchandising Displays – If you don't have a specific book in mind, your best bet is to head to our merchandising displays. These areas offer popular fiction and nonfiction titles and are a great place to begin your search.

Personalized Reading Assistance – Library staff love helping patrons find their next great read. Simply give them a few titles you've recently enjoyed and they can recommend something similar. This kind of assistance is available in the Library or online by filling out a Personalized Reading list form at wclibrary.info/goodreads.

Reading Lists – Reading recommendation lists centering on a specific genre (e.g., thrillers) or topic (e.g., armchair travel) can be found throughout the Library. Downloadable lists are also available online or you can subscribe to receive specific lists via email.

New Arrivals – Find the newest titles added to the Library's collection by downloading the Library app from the Google Play or App Store. New books appear in a scrolling banner so you can easily check availability right from the app! New arrivals can also be found at wclibrary.info/goodreads.

Library Seeks Levy Renewal

The Library Board of Trustees recently voted to place a 3.0 mills renewal levy, for a continuous period of time, on the November 2, 2021, ballot. The renewal levy will not cost local citizens any more than they are currently paying for the Library. For more information, visit wclibrary.info/levy.
