EXPLORE A UNIVERSE OF STORIES

WASHINGTON-CENTERVILLE PUBLIC LIBRARY OFFERED ITS FIRST SUMMER READING CLUB FOR CHILDREN 45 YEARS AGO – JUST FIVE YEARS AFTER THE FIRST MAN LANDED ON THE MOON. To celebrate that momentous space-travel milestone, we are encouraging children and teens to explore a Universe of Stories as part of the 2019 Summer Reading Club. Learn more at wclibrary.info/src/.

Summer Reading Club May 17 through July 31
• For Babies & Toddlers, Newborns-36 months – Little ones, along with a caregiver, have a chance to earn board books while completing daily activities designed to build early learning and social skills. Added to the fun are programs and activities that are of special appeal to our youngest patrons.

• For Teens, Grades 6-12 – Keeping teens involved in the summer always includes reading books that they like, along with special programs such as Totally Teen Tuesdays, contests, prizes, and spirited water balloon fights!

Summer Experience for Adults May 17 – July 31
